DAMRIS

“He is the son of a family working in a textile and furniture business. While his time in Turkey, Bekir acquired an extensive knowledge of home textile and bedding systems. When he migrated to Belgium, he brought a huge experience within his bag and also an understanding of the critical value of technology. From the first moment, he started to think about making smart bedding systems by using the highest technology possible. His vision and desire to design a better sleeping experience still make huge support to make Smart Sleep bigger.”

The uniquely Belgian spirit of Smart Sleep is in its quality, style, and technology. Since the first day of our establishment, we still keep on investing in new technology for a better sleep experience. We have an ever-increasing desire to transform your sleeping routine into a high-quality exclusive experience. To turn our desire into reality, we keep going to work and produce with our experts in their field taking into consideration the latest technological developments and innovations.

Belgium Sleep Systems is the main retailer of our trademarks. Currently, we have two brands under Belgium Sleep System corporation: BSS & Smart Sleep. Both are crafted with love and desire to reach the most updated technology in bedding.

Crafted with love, BSS and Smart Sleep Systems are the destination for better living for more than 30 years. We stand out with exceptional home bedding systems made from high-quality raw materials and recognized for their technology and style. Every piece produced by our design engineers is of the highest quality.
